Putnam Builders
114 Grand Avenue
Bacliff, TX 77518

Over the past five months we have had the privilege of working with Jesse Anguiano through Putnam Builders. As the superintendent, Jesse was the foundation of the success of what is now our beautiful home. From day one Jesse's attention to detail and commitment to our home was both professional and at the same time personable. Jesse made himself readily available and always responded within a timely manner. His positive attitude and work ethic was second to none. He made every effort to go out of his way to ensure that every aspect of the build and our home was done to the highest standard. Jesse made what could have been a stressful and intimidating experience exciting and fun. He tackled each challenge that inevitably comes with building a home quickly, professionally, and with a positive attitude. Over the past five months he has become a part of our life and we will truly miss seeing him every day.

Sincerely,
